Disclaimer: The personal data collected for this transaction is for us to provide you our services with correctness and completeness. Your data will be used strictly for the said purpose.

GIRO is a convenient, cashless mode of payment. To help you better understand the GIRO payment method, here are some answers to the most frequently raised questions on GIRO:

How do I get started?

Complete PART 1 and 4 of this GIRO application form and send it back to us at:

SOKA GAKKAI SINGAPORE
10 Tampines Street 81
Singapore 529014

How long do I need to wait before my GIRO arrangement is effective?

Please note for GIRO application form received in current month, the subscription period would only starts from the following month or later as stated in the form.

Normally the GIRO application process will takes around 21 working days. Your subscription will not be disrupted during this period while pending for Bank's approval.

A notification letter will be sent to you on the status of your application. We will also inform you the first and subsequent deduction dates.

When will the GIRO deduction be made?

The initial deduction will only be made from your bank account on the 16th day of the month after notification of deduction was sent. If 1st deduction is unsuccessful, we will make the 2nd attempt on the 23rd day of the month. The amount deducted will be reflected in your bank statement. If deduction date falls on a weekend or public holiday, the next working day will be the deduction date.

Subsequent deductions will be on quarterly basis as per dates stated in the notification letter.

What happens if there are insufficient funds in my bank account?

No further deduction will be made for the month if we have two unsuccessful deductions consecutively within the same month.

A notification will be sent to you. You may return the same notification to us by indicating your request at the lower portion of the notification:

1. To continue your subscription by paying the outstanding fees by cheque before the due date
2. To reinstate or terminate your GIRO status
3. To change bank account by completing the attached GIRO application form.

Please note that some banks do charge a service fee for unsuccessful GIRO deduction due to insufficient funds. Please maintain sufficient funds in your bank account to avoid unnecessary bank charges being incurred.

Can I set a payment limit on my GIRO deduction?

Yes, the amount of subscription fees to be deducted from your account quarterly as indicated by you in your GIRO application form will be the payment limit.

Can I stop GIRO payment on a particular month?

Yes, you can do so by writing to Soka Gakkai Singapore at the above stated address but you will need to give us at least One month notice before the next deduction date. Please also inform your bank to stop GIRO payment.

What happens to my GIRO arrangements that are no longer used?

You should review all your GIRO arrangements periodically and terminate those arrangements that are no longer required with your bank.
