

Ha Ha (Mother)

Background of the Song:

This song was introduced at a Women Division session held at Soka University in August 1976. It was rewritten as a song based on a long poem entitled “Mother”, which Mr. Ikeda made public in October 1971.

He commented later, “I wrote this poem in appreciation of the many praiseworthy mothers who are dedicated themselves to countless activities for people’s happiness and peace throughout the world.”
